Blood Donor Day Response Nets 96 Pints

Seventy-two employees of Columbia Steel Co., all members of the firm's hospitalization plan, and 24 other Torrance residents contributed 96 pints of blood Friday. Among the contributors were six employees of Daniels Cafe, including owner Charles Gotts. Responding to Mayor J. Hugh Sherrey's appeal for increased Red Cross blood donations, 106 people appeared at the American Legion Hall, 1109 Border avenue. Of these, 10 were rejected.

Four local Red Cross workers were among a group of nine who worked from 1 until 6 p.m. to facilitate the operation of the program. They are Mmes. John Keefer, Ray Rogers, Merle Johnson and Fern Woods.

According to John Hanks, who heads the Columbia Steel Hospitalization Plan, the Red Cross blood donor unit will return to Torrance in six months.
